C. SHARES

4. PUBLIC COMPANY AND LIABILITY OF SHAREHOLDERS

The Company is a limited company within the meaning of the Act. The Liability of any holder of shares issued by the Company to contribute to the assets by the Company is limited to the consideration paid or payable for the issue of shares held by such holder.

5. RESTRICTIONS ON HOLDING SHARES IN THE COMPANY

The Board shall not allot any share of the Company to any individual, partnership or corporate body or approve the transfer of shares to any individual, partnership or corporate body, either directly or indirectly or through a nominee or acting in concert with any other individual, partnership or corporate body in excess of the limit imposed by the Banking Act and any Directions given thereunder, unless the prior written approval of the Monetary Board has been obtained therefor.

6. ISSUE OF SHARES

- (1) The Board may issue such shares to such persons as it considers appropriate, in accordance with Section 51 of the Act.

Where the shares confer rights other than those specified in subsection (2) of Section 49 of the Act, or impose any obligation on the holder, the Board shall approve the terms of issue which set out the rights and obligations attached to those shares.

- (2) Before it issues shares, the Board shall decide the consideration for which the shares will be issued. The consideration shall, in the opinion of the Directors, be fair and reasonable to the Company and to all existing shareholders.
- (3) Where the Company issues shares which rank equally with or above existing shares in relation to voting or distribution rights, those shares shall be offered to the holders of the existing shares in a manner which would, if the offer is accepted, maintain the relative voting and distribution rights of those shareholders.
- (4) The said offer shall remain open for acceptance for a reasonable period of time and, if not expressly declined within such time, the offer shall be deemed to have been accepted by the respective offeree holder. The Company may, at the time of making the said offer, request holders of the existing shares who desire an allotment of shares in excess of their respective proportions to state how many excess shares each such holder desires and if any holders of existing shares expressly decline to accept the whole of their respective proportions, the shares so declined may be allotted to those holders who desire an excess allotment in such numbers as the Directors decide or may be allotted and issued to such other persons as the Directors consider appropriate.

- (5) The Board may,
 - (a) issue shares that may result in an increase or decrease of the number of shares issued by the Company pursuant to a decision of the Company to effect a sub division of existing shares into a greater number of or a consolidation and division of shares into a lesser number of shares;
 - (b) issue shares pursuant to a capitalization of the reserves of the Company or by way of dividends; or
 - (c) issue shares to persons other than existing shareholders.
- (6) The provisions of paragraph (3) of this Article shall not apply to an issue of shares under paragraph (5) of this Article.
- (7) The Company shall, on an issue of shares in terms of paragraph (5) (c) above, obtain approval therefor of the holders of shares whose voting and distribution rights would be affected thereby, by way of a special resolution.
- (8) The Company may issue redeemable shares as decided by the Board at the time of such issue, which may be redeemed by the Company at the option of the Company or at the option of the holders of such shares or on a date specified by the Board, for a consideration that is specified by the Board at the time of issue or at a sum to be calculated by reference to a formula or fixed by a suitably qualified person, who is not associated with or interested in the Company, as decided by the Board at the time of issue.
- (9) The Board may from time to time also issue Securities to such persons as it considers appropriate.

7. CALLS ON SHARES

- (1) Where a share imposes any obligation on the holder to pay an amount of money —
 - (a) on a fixed date, the holder shall pay that amount on that date; or
 - (b) when called on to do so by the Board, the Board may at any time give written notice to the holder requiring the payment to be made within a specified period of not less than twenty (20) working days, and the payment shall be made in accordance with that notice.
- (2) Any amount not paid by the due date shall carry interest at a rate fixed by the Board not exceeding twenty percent (20%) per annum, accruing daily. The Board may, at its discretion, waive payment of interest.
- (3) Joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable for any payments to be made under paragraph (1) of this Article.
- (4) The Company shall have a first charge or a paramount lien on every share to which paragraph (1) of this Article applies, and on every distribution payable in respect of that share, for all amounts presently due and payable to the Company in respect of that share.
- (5) For the purpose of enforcing such lien, the Company may sell in such manner as the Board thinks fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien, if—
 - (a) the Company has given written notice of its intention to do so to the shareholder; and

- (b) the shareholder has failed to make the payment in respect of which the lien has arisen, within ten (10) working days of the giving of such notice.
- (6) Upon any sale for enforcing a lien, the Board may appoint any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares sold, whereupon the purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares transferred and his title shall not be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the sale.
- (7) The proceeds of a sale under paragraph (6) of this Article shall be received by the Company and applied first in payment of the costs of sale, and then in payment of the amount in respect of which the lien arose. The remainder, if any, shall be paid to the person entitled to the shares, at the time of the sale.

8. SHARE REGISTER

- (1) The Company shall maintain a share register, which complies with Section 123 of the Act. The share register shall be kept at the registered office of the Company or at any other place in Sri Lanka, notice of which has been given to the Registrar General of Companies in accordance with subsection (4) of Section 124 of the Act.
- (2) The share register may be divided into two or more registers kept at different places, as maybe decided by the Board.

9. SHARE TRANSFER

- (1) Any shareholder desiring to sell or transfer any of his shares shall first offer in writing such shares for purchase through the Secretary to all the other shareholders at a price to be determined by the offering shareholder. In the event of any shareholder/ shareholders accepting the offer made by the offering shareholder, the offering shareholder shall thereupon transfer the shares proposed to be sold by him to those shareholders who have accepted the offer in the proportion of the shares held by those accepting shareholders at the time the offer is made.
- (2) In the event of any shares so offered all remaining unaccepted by any shareholder whomsoever during a period of thirty (30) days after such offer is first made, then the shareholder desiring to sell such shares may sell the shares that the other shareholders have not accepted within the aforesaid period to any other person, Provided that shares shall not be sold as aforesaid without the prior written consent of the other shareholders to any other person on terms more favourable than those offered in the first instance to the other shareholders.
- (3) Where shares are to be transferred, an instrument of transfer in writing shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and transferee, or by their legal representative/s and delivered to the Company.
- (4) The instrument of transfer may be in the usual or common form or any other form which the Directors may approve.
- (5) The Directors may also require an instrument of transfer to:
 - (a) be accompanied by the certificate of shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer; and
 - (b) be in respect of only one class of shares.
- (6) In no case shall the Directors be bound to inquire into the validity, legal effect or genuineness of any instrument of transfer produced by a person claiming a transfer of any share in accordance with these Articles; and whether they abstain from so inquiring or do so inquire and are misled, the transferor or transferee shall have no claim whatsoever upon the Company or the Directors, in respect of such share.

- (7) Notwithstanding any provision in these Articles suggesting the contrary, upon the Securities of the Company being listed on the Colombo Stock Exchange and for as long as the Securities are so listed, such Securities shall be freely transferable and registration of the transfer of such quoted Securities shall not be subject to any restriction, save and except to the extent required for compliance with statutory requirements.

The Directors may, by such means as they deem expedient, authorise the registration of a transfer of securities without the necessity of any meeting of Directors for that purpose.

- (8) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Articles, so long as the Securities of the Company are quoted on the Colombo Stock Exchange, the Company shall comply with the Rules of the Colombo Stock Exchange and the Central Depository System of the Colombo Stock Exchange, which shall be in force from time to time.
- (9) The Board may resolve to refuse to register a transfer of a share within six (06) weeks of receipt of the transfer,
- (a) if any amount payable to the Company in respect of the share is due but unpaid.
 - (b) If the limits referred to in Article 5 will thereby be exceeded
 - (c) if the transfer is in relation to a share on which the Company has a lien.

If the Board resolves to refuse to register a transfer for this reason, it shall give notice of the refusal to the shareholder within one (1) week of the date of such resolution.

- (10) If a shareholder, whether directly or indirectly and/or with the persons referred to in Article 5 acquires or holds shares in excess of the limits imposed under the Banking Act or under any other law in the capital of the Company, the shareholder whose acquisition of shares resulted in such excess shares for sale shall be notified in writing by the Directors to offer such excess shares for sale within such time as may be specified by the Directors. In the event of such shareholder failing to carry out the requirements of the Directors in that regard, within the time specified by the Directors, such shareholder shall be deemed for purposes (immediately upon the lapse of such time specified by the Directors) to have appointed the Secretary of the Company to sell such excess shares on behalf of such shareholder in accordance with the requirements of the Directors and (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) the Secretary shall also be deemed to have been authorized by such shareholder to sign the transfer form and all other documents relating to the sale of such excess shares and to pass lawful title thereto to any purchaser and to receive the sale proceeds on behalf of such shareholder. If the Secretary by virtue of his powers hereunder sells the excess shares of a shareholder, the sale proceeds thereof shall be received and retained by the Secretary for collection by the shareholder less all charges and expenses pertaining to such sale. If a sale is about to take place as aforesaid, the shareholder concerned shall forthwith surrender the share certificate(s) held by him to the Secretary failing which the Directors may order the cancellation of such share certificate and issue to such shareholder a certificate for such number of shares as the shareholder is entitled to hold in terms of these presents, together with an appropriate share certificate for the excess number of shares which will be retained by the Secretary for the specific purpose of effecting a sale of such excess shares in accordance with the determination and notification by the Directors. Such shareholder and/or any other person claiming under or through him shall have no right or claim whatever against the Company and/or the Secretary regarding the sale of such excess shares, except to receive as aforesaid the net sale proceeds retained by the Secretary on the sale of excess shares effected by the Secretary.

10. TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

- (1) Where a joint holder of a share dies, the remaining holder/s shall be treated by the Company as the holder/s of that share. Where the sole holder of a share dies, a person nominated by that shareholder in terms of Section 544 of the Civil Procedure Code or that shareholder's legal representative shall be the only person recognised by the Company as having any title to or interest in the share, but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.
- (2) Any person who becomes entitled to a share as a consequence of the death, bankruptcy, insolvency or incapacity of a shareholder may be registered as the holder of that shareholder's shares upon making a request in writing to the Company to be so registered, accompanied by proof satisfactory to the Board of such entitlement. The Board may refuse to register a transmission under this Article in the circumstances set out in paragraphs (7) of Article 9 above.
- (3) If any person who shall become entitled to be registered in respect of any share under this Article shall not, for any cause whatsoever, within twelve (12) months after the event on the happening of which his title shall accrue, be registered in respect of such share or if, in the case of the death of any shareholder, no person shall, within eighteen (18) calendar months after such death, be registered as a shareholder in respect of the shares of such deceased shareholder, the Company may sell the same either by public auction or by private contract, and give a receipt for the purchase money. Upon any such sale, the Directors may appoint a person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares sold and cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the register in respect of the shares sold and the purchaser shall not be bound to inquire whether the events have happened which entitle the Company to sell the same; the net proceeds of such sale, after deducting all expenses and all monies in respect of which the Company is entitled to a lien on the shares so sold, shall be paid to the person entitled thereto.

11. JOINT SHAREHOLDING

The Company shall not register more than three persons as joint holders (including the principal holder) of any shares (except in the case of executors, administrators or heirs of a deceased shareholder).

12. SHARE CERTIFICATES

- (1) Where the Company issues shares or the transfer of any shares is entered on the share register, the Company shall within two (2) months complete and have ready for delivery a share certificate in respect of the shares.
- (2) Where a share certificate is defaced, lost or destroyed it may be re-issued on payment of the cost of issue or such lesser sum and on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of out-of-pocket expenses of the Company for investigating evidence as the Directors think fit.

13. PURCHASE OF OWN SHARES

The Company may purchase or otherwise acquire its own shares.

14. CONSOLIDATION AND SUB-DIVISION OF SHARES

- (1) The Company may consolidate shares in the Company or the shares in a particular class of shares in the Company into a lesser number of shares, in proportion to those shares, by following a procedure to effect such consolidation as the Board may consider appropriate.

- (2) The Company may subdivide all of the shares in the Company or all of the shares in a particular class of shares in the Company into a greater number of shares, in proportion to those shares, by following a procedure to effect such subdivision as the Board may consider appropriate.
- (3) The Board may take such action as it may, at its absolute discretion think necessary, to deal with any fractions that may arise in the computation of the number of shares that a shareholder would be entitled to upon a consolidation and/or sub-division of shares in the Company, as the case may be.

15. DISTRIBUTIONS AND RESERVES

- (1) The Company may make distributions to shareholders in accordance with Section 56 of the Act. The Board shall be satisfied that the Company shall immediately after the distribution satisfy the solvency test. The Directors who vote in favour of the distribution shall sign a certificate of their opinion to that effect.
- (2) The Company shall be deemed to have satisfied the solvency test if-
 - (a) it is able to pay its debts as they become due in the normal course of business; and
 - (b) the value of the Company's assets is greater than-
 - (i) the value of its liabilities; and
 - (ii) the Company's stated capital.
- (3) Except in the case where a distribution is a final dividend, the approval of the shareholders by an ordinary resolution or otherwise shall not be required before a distribution, including an interim dividend.
- (4) The profits of the Company shall be distributable and divisible among the shareholders in proportion to the capital paid or credited as paid on the shares held by them respectively, subject to:
 - (a) the rights of holders of shares issued upon special conditions; and
 - (b) any arrangements that may be made by the Company to the contrary; and
 - (c) shares not fully paid up; and
 - (d) any special arrangement made as regards money paid in advance of calls; and
 - (e) the provisions of these Articles as to reserve funds.
- (5) Before the Directors make any distributions, they may set aside, out of the profits of the Company, such sum as they think proper as a reserve fund or funds.
- (6) The Directors may divide the reserve fund or funds into such special funds as they think fit, with full power to employ the assets constituting the reserve fund in the business of the Company for any purpose which they may from time to time deem expedient and without being bound to keep such assets separate from the other assets of the Company. The Directors may also carry forward any profits which they may deem it not prudent to divide.
- (7) The Board may decide to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve funds/accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution, and accordingly to set free such sum for distribution amongst the shareholders who would have been entitled thereto if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions, on condition that the same be - not paid in cash but be applied either in or towards paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such shareholders respectively or paying up in full, shares or debentures of the Company to be allotted, issued and distributed, credited as fully paid up to and amongst such shareholders in the proportion aforesaid, or partly in the one way and partly in the other.

- (8) Whenever such a decision as aforesaid shall have been made, the Directors shall make all appropriations and applications of the undivided profits to be capitalised and all allotments and issues of fully paid shares or debentures, if any, and generally shall do all acts and things required to give effect thereto.
 - (9) Subject to the provisions of Article 15 (3), the Board may authorise a distribution by way of a dividend to be paid to the shareholders according to their rights and interests in the profits and may fix the time for payment. No dividend shall be payable out of the capital of the Company.
 - (10) Any dividend or interim dividend which may be authorised by the Directors, may be paid by means of cash or by the distribution of specific assets and, in particular, of paid-up shares, debentures or debenture stock of the Company or of any other company or in specie or in any one or more of such ways and where any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution, they may settle the same as they think expedient and in particular may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any shareholder upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties and may vest any such specific assets in trustees upon such trusts for the persons entitled to the dividend as may seem expedient to the Board.
 - (11) No shareholder shall be entitled to receive payment of any dividend or any allotment and issue of shares credited as fully paid up in respect of his share or shares whilst any moneys may be due or owing from him (whether alone or jointly with any other person) to the Company in respect of such share or shares or otherwise howsoever.
 - (12) No dividend shall bear interest against the Company.
 - (13) The Directors may deduct from the dividend payable to any shareholder all sums of money due from him (whether alone or jointly with any other person) to the Company and notwithstanding that such sums shall not be payable until after the date when such dividend is payable. A transfer of shares shall not pass the rights to any dividend declared thereon before the registration of the transfer.
 - (14) Unless otherwise directed any dividend may be paid by cheque or warrant sent by post to the registered address of the shareholder entitled thereto or, in the case of joint-holders, to the registered address of the joint-holder whose name stands first on the register in respect of the joint-holding; but the Company shall not be liable or responsible for the loss of any such cheque or dividend warrant sent through the post.
 - (15) All dividends unclaimed for one (1) year after having been declared may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Board for the benefit of the Company until claimed and the Company shall not be constituted a trustee in respect thereof. All dividends unclaimed for six (6) years after having been declared shall be forfeited and shall revert to the Company.
 - (16) Every dividend payable in respect of any share held by several persons jointly may be paid to and an effectual receipt given by, any one of such persons.

D. MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

16. NOTICE OF MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

- (1) Written notice of the time and place of a meeting of shareholders (including a meeting where it is intended to propose a resolution as a special resolution) shall be given to every shareholder entitled to receive notice of the meeting and to every Director and the auditor of the Company—
 - (a) not less than fifteen (15) working days before the meeting, if the meeting is an annual general meeting or the meeting is one where it is intended to propose a resolution as a special resolution.
 - (b) not less than ten (10) working days before the meeting, in any other case.

provided that a meeting of the Company shall notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this Article be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed:

 - (i) in the case of a meeting called as the annual general meeting, by all the shareholders entitled to attend and vote at such meeting; and
 - (ii) in the case of any other meeting, by the shareholders having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being shareholders together holding shares which carry not less than ninety five per centum (95%) of the voting rights, on each issue to be considered and voted on at that meeting.
- (2) The notice shall set out—
 - (a) the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting in sufficient detail to enable a shareholder to form a reasoned judgment in relation to it; and
 - (b) the intention, if any, to propose a resolution at such meeting and the text of such resolution to be submitted to the meeting.

Provided however, the business of, declaring a dividend, consideration of the annual report, the financial statements and the group financial statements, the election of Directors in place of those retiring or the appointment and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors, which may be proposed at such meeting shall not be required to be specifically or separately set out in or referred to in such notice.

- (3) An irregularity in a notice of a meeting is waived if all the shareholders entitled to attend and vote at the meeting attend the meeting without protest as to the irregularity, or if all such shareholders agree to the waiver.
- (4) If a meeting of shareholders is adjourned for less than thirty (30) days, it is not necessary to give notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting, other than by announcement at the meeting which is adjourned.
- (5) Two (2) or more shareholders holding shares which carry not less than ten per centum (10%) the votes which may be cast on an issue, may call a meeting to consider and vote on that issue only in accordance with the provisions of Section 134 of the Act.

17. METHOD OF HOLDING MEETINGS

A meeting of shareholders (including a meeting where it is intended to propose a resolution as a special resolution) may be held by a number of shareholders who constitute a quorum, being assembled together at the place, date and time appointed for the meeting.

18. QUORUM

- (1) Subject to paragraph (3) of this Article, no business may be transacted at a meeting of shareholders if a quorum is not present.
- (2) A quorum for a meeting of shareholders is present if three (3) shareholders or shareholder/shareholders holding at least eighty five per centum (85%) of the issued shares in the Company for the time being, are present in person or by proxy.
- (3) If a quorum is not present within thirty (30) minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting is adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and place, or to such other date, time and place as the Directors may appoint. If at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within thirty (30) minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the shareholders present or their proxies shall be deemed to form a quorum.

19. CHAIRPERSON

- (1) The chairperson of the Board shall chair the meetings of the shareholders.
- (2) If at any meeting of shareholders the chairperson of the Board is not present within fifteen (15) minutes of the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the Board may choose one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting.

20. VOTING

- (1) Voting at a meeting of shareholders held under Article 15 above shall, unless a poll is demanded, be by a show of hands.
- (2) A declaration by the chairperson of the meeting that a resolution is carried by the requisite majority or lost, is conclusive evidence of that fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution, unless a poll is demanded in accordance with paragraph (3) of this Article.
- (3) At a meeting of shareholders, a poll may be demanded by —
 - (a) the chairperson; or
 - (b) not less than five (5) shareholders having the right to vote at the meeting; or
 - (c) a shareholder or shareholders representing not less than ten per centum (10%) of the total voting rights of all shareholders having the right to vote at the meeting.
- (4) A poll may be demanded either before or after the vote is taken on a resolution. However, the demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.
- (5) If a poll is taken, votes shall be counted according to the votes attached to the shares of each shareholder present and voting.
- (6) The chairperson of a shareholders' meeting is not entitled to a casting vote.
- (7) No objection shall be made to the validity of any vote except at the meeting or poll at which such vote shall be tendered, and every vote to which no objection shall be made at such meeting or poll, shall be deemed valid for all purposes of such meeting or poll whatsoever.

21. PROXIES

- (1) A shareholder may exercise the right to vote either by being present in person or by proxy.

- (2) A proxy for a shareholder is entitled to attend and be heard at a meeting of shareholders as if the proxy were the shareholder.
- (3) A proxy shall be appointed by notice in writing signed by the shareholder. The notice shall state whether the appointment is for a particular meeting, or for a specified term.
- (4) No proxy is effective in relation to a meeting, unless a copy of the notice of appointment is given to the Company not less than forty eight (48) hours before the start of the meeting.
- (5) An instrument of proxy shall be in the following form or a form as near thereto as circumstances permits:-

“DFCC Vardhana Bank Limited”.

“I/We..... ofbeing a shareholder/shareholders of DFCC Vardhana Bank Limited hereby appoint..... of or failing himas my/our proxy to attend and vote at the (Annual or Extraordinary as the case may be) General Meeting of the Company to be held on the.....day of 20.....and at any adjournment thereof.

Signed this..... day of20.....”

- (6) A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid, notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or the revocation of the proxy, or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the Company at the registered office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting (or in the case of a poll before the time appointed for the taking of the poll) at which the proxy is used.

22. MINUTES

- (1) The Board shall ensure that minutes are kept of all proceedings at meetings of shareholders.
- (2) Minutes which have been signed by the chairperson of the meeting at which the proceedings were had, or by the chairperson of the next succeeding meeting, shall be prima facie evidence of such proceedings.

23. CORPORATIONS MAY ACT BY REPRESENTATIVES

A body corporate which is a shareholder may appoint a representative to attend a meeting of shareholders on its behalf in the same manner as it could appoint a proxy.

24. VOTES OF JOINT HOLDERS

Where two or more persons are registered as the holder of a share, the vote of the person named first in the share register and voting on a matter shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders. Where there are several executors or administrators of a deceased shareholder in whose sole name any shares stand, any one of such executors or administrators may vote in respect of such shares unless any other of such executors or administrators is present at the meeting at which such a vote is tendered and objects to the vote. The vote in relation to such shares in any matter shall be accepted only if all of such executors or administrators agree thereto

25. LOSS OF VOTING IF CALLS UNPAID

If a sum due to a Company in respect of a share has not been paid, no vote shall be cast in relation to that share at a shareholders’ meeting other than a meeting of a group of shareholders whose affected rights are identical and whose rights are affected by the action or proposal in the same way.

26. ANNUAL GENERAL MEETINGS AND EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Article, the Board shall call an annual general meeting of the Company to be held —
 - (a) once in each calendar year;
 - (b) not later than six (6) months after the balance sheet date of the Company; and
 - (c) not later than fifteen (15) months after the previous annual general meeting; andsuch meeting shall be held on the date on which it is called to be held.
- (2) An extraordinary general meeting of shareholders entitled to vote on an issue may be called at any time by the Board, and shall be called by the Board on the written request of shareholders holding shares, carrying not less than ten (10) per centum of votes which may be cast on that issue.
- (3) A resolution in writing (whether ordinary or special other than a resolution requiring special notice in terms of the Act) signed by such numbers of shareholders who together hold not less than eighty-five per centum (85%) of the votes entitled to be cast on that resolution, is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of those shareholders. The Company need not hold an annual general meeting if everything required to be done at the meeting (by resolution or otherwise) is done by resolution and is in accordance with this Article. Any such resolution may consist of more than one document in like form; each signed or assented to by one or more shareholders and may be transmitted to the Company, by facsimile, email or other similar means of communication. A copy of any such resolution shall be entered in the minute book kept for the purpose of entering the minutes of general meetings of the Company.
- (4) Within five (5) working days of a resolution being passed under paragraph (3) of this Article, the Company shall send a copy of the resolution to every shareholder who did not sign it.
- (5) A resolution may be passed under paragraph (3) of this Article without any prior notice being given to shareholders.

27. VOTING IN INTEREST GROUPS

Where the Company proposes to take action which affects the rights attached to shares within the meaning of Section 99 of the Act, the action may not be taken unless it is approved by a special resolution of each interest group, as defined in the Act.

28. SHAREHOLDERS ENTITLED TO RECEIVE NOTICE, ATTEND AND VOTE AT MEETINGS, TO DISTRIBUTIONS, TO EXERCISE PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS AND TO OTHER RIGHTS STIPULATED BY LAW OR THESE ARTICLES.

- (1) The shareholders who are entitled to receive notice, attend and vote at meetings for any purpose, to distributions, to exercise pre-emptive rights and to other rights stipulated by law or the Articles, shall be those shareholders who, on the date fixed by the Board for such purpose in accordance with paragraph (2) below, are registered in the share register on that date.
- (2) A date fixed under paragraph (1) of this Article should not precede by more than thirty (30) working days, the date on which the shareholders become entitled to receive their rights

- morefully set out in paragraph (1) above.
- (3) Before a meeting of shareholders, the Company may prepare a list of shareholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the number of shares held by each shareholder on the date fixed under paragraph (1) of this Article.
 - (4) A person named in a list prepared under paragraph (3) of this Article is entitled to attend the meeting and vote in respect of the shares shown opposite his name, in person or by proxy, except to the extent that—
 - (a) such person has, since the date on which the shareholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting were determined, transferred any of his shares to another person; and
 - (b) the transferee of those shares has been registered as the holder of those shares, and has requested before the commencement of the meeting that his or her name be entered on the list prepared under paragraph (3) of this Article.
 - (5) A shareholder may examine a list prepared under paragraph (3) of this Article during normal business hours on any date prior to two (02) working days of the date scheduled for the meeting of shareholders, at the registered office of the Company.

E. DIRECTORS AND SECRETARY

29. APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

- (1) Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution of the shareholders of the Company, the number of Directors shall not be less than seven (07) and not more than nine (09)
- (2) The Directors shall have power at any time and from time to time to appoint, in accordance with the Banking Act and, in the event the Securities of the Company are listed on the Colombo Stock Exchange and for as long as the Securities are so listed, the Listing Rules, any person to be a Director, either to fill a casual vacancy, or as an addition to the existing Directors, but so that the total number of Directors shall not at any time exceed the number fixed in accordance with (1) above.
- (3) Any director so appointed shall hold office only until the next following annual general meeting, and shall then be eligible for re-election but shall not be taken into account in determining the directors who are to retire by rotation at such meeting.
- (4) A Director may be appointed or removed by ordinary resolution passed at a meeting called for that purpose or by a written resolution in accordance with paragraph (3) of Article 24. The shareholders may only vote on a resolution to appoint a Director if-
 - (a) the resolution is for the appointment of one (1) Director; or
 - (b) the resolution is a single resolution for the appointment of two (2) or more persons as Directors, and a separate resolution that it be so voted on has first been passed without a vote being cast against it.
- (5) A Director may, if he is unable to attend to his duties as a Director, by notice in writing under his hand to the registered office of the Company or by notice sent by facsimile transmission, appoint any person to be an alternate director of the Company to act for him for a period as may be determined by such Director and at any time remove the alternate director so appointed.
- (6) A Director appointed by another Director to be his alternate director shall thereupon be entitled to exercise (in addition to his own right of voting as a Director) such appointer's rights at meetings of the Board. A person may act as an alternate director for more than one Director.
- (7) A person appointed as an alternate director shall not be required to hold any share qualification.

- (8) An alternate director shall on his giving an address for such notice to be served upon him be entitled to receive notices of all meetings of Directors and to attend and vote as a Director, at any such meeting at which the Director appointing him is not personally present and generally at such meeting to perform all the functions of his appointer as a Director in the absence of such appointer.
- (9) An alternate director may be appointed for a specified period or until the happening of a specified event but he shall ipso facto cease to be an alternate director if his appointer ceases for any reason to be a Director.
- (10) A Director may resign by delivering a signed written notice of resignation to the registered office of the Company. Subject to Section 208 of the Act, the notice is effective when it is received at the registered office or at any later time specified in the notice.
- (11) The office of Director shall, ipso facto, be vacated in the instances specified in the Act, the Banking Act or any other legal enactment from time to time in force relating to the regulation of commercial banks and, in the event the Securities of the Company are listed on the Colombo Stock Exchange and for as long as the Securities are so listed, the Listing Rules that may be applicable to the Company, or if —
 - (a) all the other Directors request the Director, in writing, to resign from office;
 - (b) if the Director is absent from three (03) consecutive meetings of the Board, without special leave of absence and the Board resolves that his office is vacated.
 - (c) If the Director retires from office under Article 31 and is not re-elected.
- (12) The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the Board; but so that if the number of Directors falls below the minimum above fixed, the remaining Directors or Director shall act only for the purpose of appointing a Director or Directors to fill one or more of the vacancies.

30. EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER.

- (1) The Board may from time to time appoint any person as a Chief Executive Officer and / or to an executive position in the Company for such period and on such terms as the Board shall think fit and may at any time revoke such appointment.
- (2) A Chief Executive Officer appointed in terms of (1) above shall also be a member of the Board of Directors. Such Chief Executive Officer who is also a director shall not, whilst holding that office, be subject to retirement by rotation or be taken into account in determining the rotation of retirement of Directors.
- (3) Subject to any conditions or restrictions which the Board considers appropriate, the Board may delegate to the Chief Executive Officer, any of their powers which can be lawfully delegated. Any such delegation may at any time be withdrawn or varied by the Board. The delegation of a power of the Board to the Chief Executive Officer does not prevent the exercise of the power by the Board, unless the terms of the delegation expressly provide otherwise.

31. ROTATION OF DIRECTORS

- (1) At every Annual General Meeting of the Company, one Director shall retire from office.
- (2) The Director to so retire in every year shall be the one who has been longest in office since his/her last election, but as between persons who became Directors on the same day, the Director to retire shall unless they otherwise agree among themselves, be determined by lot.

- (3) A retiring Director shall act as a Director throughout the meeting at which he retires and shall be eligible for re-election.
- (4) The Company at the meeting at which a Director retires in the manner aforesaid may fill the vacated office by electing a person thereto, and in default the retiring Director shall be deemed to have been re-elected unless:
 - (a) at such meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill such vacated office or
 - (b) unless a resolution for re-election of such Director shall have been put to the meeting and lost, or
 - (c) such Director has given notice in writing to the Company that he is unwilling to be re-elected.
- (5) No person other than a retiring Director shall, unless recommended by the Directors for election, be eligible for election as a Director at any general meeting unless a member has at least seven (7) clear days before the meeting left at the office a notice in writing under his hand, signifying his intention to propose such person for election accompanied by a notice in writing, signed by the person of his willingness to be elected.
- (6) The Company in General Meeting may at any time or times alter the rotation in which the Directors are to go out of office.

32. POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

- (1) Subject to Section 185 of the Act which relates to major transactions and the provisions contained therein, the business and affairs of the Company shall be managed by or under the direction or supervision of the Board. The Board shall have all the powers necessary for managing and for directing and supervising the management of the business and affairs of the Company.
- (2) The Board may delegate to a committee of Directors or to any person it deems fit, any of its powers which it is permitted to delegate under Section 186 of the Act.
- (3) The Directors have the duties set out in the Act, and in particular—
 - (a) each Director shall act in good faith and in what he believes to be the best interest of the Company; and
 - (b) no Director shall act or agree to the Company acting, in a manner that contravenes any provisions of the Act, the Banking Act, the Articles or any other legal enactment from time to time in force relating to the regulation of commercial banks, that may be applicable to the Company

33. METHOD OF CONTRACTING

- (1) The Company may enter into contracts or other enforceable obligations in accordance with the provisions set out in section 19 of the Act.
- (2) Such contracts or other enforceable obligations, may also be entered into on behalf of the Company by the affixing of its common seal in the presence of two or more Directors, or of one Director and the secretary who shall attest the sealing thereof. The common seal of the Company shall not be affixed other than in the manner set out herein.
- (3) The Board shall provide for the safe custody of the seal and the seal shall only be used by authority of the Board or by a committee of directors authorized by the Board in that behalf.
- (4) Where the Board shall so resolve in the case of certificates for shares of the Company

(which shall not however be deemed to include letters of allotment issued under the signature if the Secretary on behalf of the Company) or in the case of certificates for debentures, debenture stock, loan stock or any other form of security, the signature of a Director/s, with the approval and subject to the control of the auditors or the bankers of the Company, be in the form of an autographic signature stamped or printed or impressed by manual or mechanical means thereon.
